

WILLIAMS OPERA
HOUSE CHANGES HANDS

The Young Men's Entertainment Association has taken a year's lease on the Williams Opera House and hereafter will give all their dances and entertainments in their own hall instead of the Sultana Theatre.

The hall will be thoroughly repapered, painted, and decorated. The floor is to be thoroughly scraped, polished, and put in a No. 1 condition for dancing.

The hall will be opened Feb. 14 with a Valentine ball and supper. The hall is for rent at reasonable prices. M. A. Young Sec.

G. W. Mathews of the Racket store has been suggested for city councilman. The News does not know whether Mr. Mathews would consider accepting this nomination or not, but believes that he would have a great many warm supporters if he chose to run.

They are holding church services at the Anita school house every Wednesday evening at 7:30. Brother Smith has charge of the services and everybody is welcome.

The News force now consists of F. E. Wells, editor, Florence Nellis, Joe Klock, and Miles Polson, compositors, and F. M. Gold, business manager.

Mr. Campbell of Flagstaff transacted business in Williams Thursday.

Mrs. W. D. Finney returned this week from visiting friends in Michigan and other eastern points.
